- 3. On 9 July, there were approximately 380 tanks in the North Korean army.
- On 5 day, former AMIK and KHAG motor pools were being used by the North Koreans to repair and service tanks and armored vehicles. All south Korean men captured by North Korean troops in Secul were killed. Captured officers were imprisoned and interrogated, then probably shot.
- The North Korean 15 and 18 Divisions (regiments?) are composed of Chiese Communists and Acreans who fought in the People's Liberation army in Manchuria. Some elements of the 15 Division were trained at Nanam (129-41, 41-42), others at Hoeryong. The 18 Division was trained at Hoeryong. 15 Division is completely equipped with Soviet weapons. The cadre of these two divisions are Soviet horeans from Siberia (possibly Kazakhstan).
